Notice: Additional Requirement

Service of Process in Action for Possession of Premises

In an action for possession of any residential premises Section 48.183, Florida Statutes, imposes an additional requirement if a landlord causes or anticipates causing a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by having the Sheriff post the summons and complaint at the property.

Therefore, if the landlord anticipates or is informed by the Sheriff that the defendant cannot be served in person, the landlord must provide the Clerk of the Court with an additional copy of the complaint (and attachments) and a pre-stamped envelope addressed to the defendant at the premises involved in the proceeding.

At least five days must elapse after the Clerk mails the copy of the summons and complaint to the defendant before a default can be requested and a Final Judgment Removal of Tenant can be prepared.

48.183. Service of process in action for possession of premises

(1) In an action for possession of any residential premises, including those under chapters 83, 723, and 513, or nonresidential premises, if the tenant cannot be found in the county or there is no person 15 years of age or older residing at the tenant's usual place of abode in the county after at least two attempts to obtain service as provided above in this subsection, summons may be served by attaching a copy to a conspicuous place on the property described in the complaint or summons. The minimum time delay between the two attempts to obtain service shall be 6 hours. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting service of process on a tenant as is otherwise provided on defendants in civil cases.

(2) If a landlord causes or anticipates causing a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by attaching them to some conspicuous place on the property described in the complaint or summons, the landlord shall provide the clerk of the court with an additional copy of the complaint and a prestamped envelope addressed to the defendant at the premises involved in the proceedings. The clerk of the court shall immediately mail the copy of the summons and complaint by first-class mail, note the fact of mailing in the docket, and file a certificate in the court file of the fact and date of mailing. Service shall be effective on the date of posting or mailing, whichever occurs later, and at least 5 days must elapse from the date of service before a judgment for final removal of the defendant may be entered.

83.22 Removal of Tenant; service–

(2) If a landlord causes, or anticipates causing a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by attached them to some conspicuous part of the premises involved in the proceeding, the landlord shall provide the clerk of the court with two additional copies of the complaint and two prestamped envelopes addressed to the defendant. One envelope shall be addressed to such address or location as has been designated by the tenant for receipt of notice in a written lease or other agreement, or, if none has been designated to the residence of the tenant, if known. The second envelope shall be addressed to the last known business address of the tenant. The clerk of the court shall immediately mail the copies of the summons and complaint by first-class mail, note the fact of mailing in the docket, and file a certificate in the court file of the fact and date of mailing. Service shall be effective on the date of posting or mailing, whichever occurs later; and at least 5 days from the date of service must have elapsed before a judgment for final removal of the defendant may be entered.

If you have questions or concerns about these forms, commentary, the use of the forms, or your legal rights, it is strongly recommended that you talk to an attorney. You may call the Florida Bar Lawyer Referral Service at 1-800-342-8011.

Because the law does change, the forms and information about them may have become outdated. You should be aware that changes may have taken place in the law or court rules that would affect the accuracy of the forms or instructions.

FILING FEE: $185.00 – County Court Landlord Tenant Actions
$400.00 - Circuit Court (if exceeds $15,000) Landlord Tenant
Actions

SUMMONS FEES: There is a $10.00 fee to issue any summons (including alias and pluries) per defendant.

PROCESS SERVERS FEE: Please refer to the list of approved process servers.

SHERIFF’S FEE: $40.00 per summons

COPIES REQUIRED: Originals for filing and one set of copies per defendant for services and one set of copies along with preaddressed stamped envelopes per defendant for certificate of mailing.

WRIT OF POSSESSION FEE: $90.00 for the sheriff to serve the Writ of Possession after the Final Judgment has been entered.

LANDLORD TENANT FORMS—INSTRUCTIONS

Dear Landlord or Tenant:

The attached forms are designed for use in the event of common landlord/tenant disputes. They should be used only for residential leases. If you have a commercial, agricultural, or personal property lease, you should consult with an attorney. No form should be used until you have carefully reviewed and understand the instructions preceding the form and reviewed by any referenced Florida Statute.

The residential landlord/tenant relationship is controlled by the terms of your lease and by Part II of Chapter 83 of the Florida Statutes. The procedures for enforcing your rights under your lease and Part II of Chapter 83 are set forth in section 51.011, Florida Statutes. You are advised to carefully review these statutes before starting any legal proceeding concerning a residential lease. Copies of these statutes are available at the Law Library and at your public library.

Before you can start a lawsuit to end a residential lease or withhold rental payments, you must first give proper written notice. The form of the notice will depend on the landlord's or tenant's reason for terminating the lease or withholding rent. The following is listed the reasons for a landlord to terminate a lease and evict a tenant.

1. The tenant has not paid his rent on time.
2. The tenant has not complied with the requirements of the lease or has violated Florida Statutes.
3. The tenant has violated his rental agreement for failure of tenant to comply with its statutory obligations to maintain the dwelling unit or material provisions of the rental agreement (other than failure to pay rent).
4. The landlord needs possession and it is not for any of the above reasons.

The landlord will need to either, hand deliver, post, or mail any of the above notices to the tenant in order to terminate the lease and evict the tenant for those the reasons listed.

The tenant must give notice to the landlord for one of two reasons. First, a tenant will notify the landlord to end the lease when the landlord does not maintain the property as required by the lease or Florida Statutes.

Second, the tenant may instead withhold rent payments. Forms 3 and 4 contain the notices which must be sent to the landlord in each of these circumstances.

After sending the notice, it may be necessary to file a suit. The landlord will, as a general rule, have a suit against the tenant not only to evict the tenant (have the tenant removed from the property), but also for damages for unpaid rent. Form 5A contains a complaint for both eviction and for damages for unpaid rent. If the amount of damages exceeds $15,000, you should not use this form. If a landlord wants to evict a tenant for breaches of the lease other than failure to pay rent, the suit may be for eviction only. Form 6 contains the complaint to evict a tenant for failure to comply with the lease for other than the payment of rent.

At the time the complaint is filed a landlord must ask the clerk of the court to issue summonses. After the summons is issued, the landlord will deliver those summonses to the sheriff or certified process server with a copy of the complaint, and all attachments for service on the tenant.

Once the complaint has been served and the Clerk or the Court has entered a default against the tenant, the landlord may request that a judgment be entered. For eviction only, the landlord can request a default after five days, not counting the date of service, weekends and holidays. If the tenant answers the complaint and follows the instructions listed in the summons, the case will be set for a hearing and parties will be notified of the hearing date. If the landlord is requesting a judgment for rent and/or damages, a default cannot be requested until 20 days after service on the defendant.

If the court rules that the landlord is entitled to evict the tenant and/or recover damages for unpaid rent, the court will sign a judgment in the landlord's favor. The Clerk's Office will prepare the Final Judgment for Removal of Tenant and forward to the Judge for signature. Should a landlord receive a final judgment for eviction and the tenant remains in the property, he/she must ask the clerk of the court to execute a Writ of Possession . The Writ of Possession should be delivered to the sheriff for service on the tenant after execution by the clerk.

The landlord usually may keep the security deposit to apply against damage to the property cause by the tenant. The landlord's right to keep the security deposit is strictly limited by the Florida Statutes. To keep the security deposit, the landlord must send a notice to the tenant. Form 12 provides you with the form for a Notice of Intent to Claim Security Deposit.

FORM 1 – NOTICE FROM LANDLORD TO TENANT – TERMINATION FOR FAILURE TO PAY RENT

This notice may be delivered by mail or by delivering a copy to the dwelling unit, or if the Tenant is absent from the dwelling unit, by leaving a copy thereof at the dwelling unit.

If the Tenant fails to pay rent when due and the default continues for three (3) days (excluding Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays) after delivery of written demand by the Landlord for payment of the rent or possession of the premises, the Landlord may terminate the rental agreement. This written demand is a prerequisite to an action to evict the Tenant or recover past due rent. Your written rental agreement may have allowed for a longer period than three days and should be reviewed.

FORM 3 — NOTICE FROM TENANT TO LANDLORD — TERMINATION FOR FAILURE OF LANDLORD TO MAINTAIN PREMISES
AS REQUIRED BY FLORIDA STATUTE 83.51(1) OR MATERIAL
PROVISIONS OF THE RENTAL AGREEMENT.

The tenant should carefully review sections 83.51(1) and 83.51(2), Florida Statutes, and the rental agreement and should ensure that the violations by the Landlord alleged by the Tenant in the notice do, in fact exist. The tenant's right to terminate the rental agreement exists only after notice is given and if the landlord fails to maintain the premises as required by section 83.51 or material provision of the rental agreement. Section 83.51(1) provides as follows:

83.51 Landlord's obligation to maintain premises.

- (1) The landlord at all times during the tenancy shall:
  - (a) Comply with the requirements of applicable building, housing, or health codes; or
  - (b) Where there are no applicable building, housing, and health codes, maintain the roofs, windows, screens, doors, floors, steps, porches, exterior walls, foundations, and all other structural components in good repair and capable of resisting normal forces and loads and the plumbing in reasonable working condition. However, the landlord shall not be required to maintain a mobile home or other structure owned by the tenant.

The landlord's obligations under this subsection may be modified by the lease in the case of a single-family home or duplex.

- (2) (a) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, in addition to the requirements of subsection (1), the landlord of a dwelling unit other than a single family home or duplex shall, at all times during the tenancy, make reasonable provisions for:
  1. The extermination of rats, mice, roaches, ants, wood-destroying organisms, and bedbugs. When vacation of the premises is required for such extermination, the landlord shall not be liable for damages but shall abate the rent.

The tenant shall be required to temporarily vacate the premises for a period of time not to exceed 4 days, on 7 days' written notice, if necessary, for extermination pursuant to this subparagraph.

2. Locks and keys.
  3. The clean and safe condition of common areas.
  4. Garbage removal and outside receptacles therefor.
  5. Functioning facilities for heat during winter, running water, and hot water.
- (b) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, at the commencement of the tenancy of a single family home or duplex, the landlord shall install working smoke detection devices. As used in this paragraph, the term "smoke detection device" means an electrical or battery-operated device which detects visible or invisible particles of combustion and which is listed by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., Factory Mutual Laboratories, Inc. or any other nationally recognized testing laboratory using nationally accepted testing standards.
- (c) Nothing in this part authorizes the tenant to raise a noncompliance by the landlord with this subsection as a defense to an action for possession under s. 83.59.
- (d) This subsection shall not apply to a mobile home owned by a tenant.
- (e) Nothing contained in this subsection prohibits the landlord from providing in the rental agreement that the tenant is obligated to pay costs or charges for garbage removal, water, fuel, or utilities.
- (3) If the duty imposed by subsection (1) is the same or greater than any duty imposed by subsection (2), the landlord's duty is determined by subsection (1). (4) The Landlord is not responsible to the tenant under this section for conditions created or caused by the other person on the premises with the tenant's consent.
- (4) The landlord is not responsible to the tenant under this section for conditions created or caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of the tenant, a member of the tenant's family, or other person on the premises with the tenant's consent.

FORM 4 — NOTICE FROM TENANT TO LANDLORD — WITHHOLDING RENT FOR FAILURE OF LANDLORD TO MAINTAIN PREMISES AS REQUIRED BY FLORIDA STATUTE 83.51 (1) OR MATERIAL PROVISIONS OF THE RENTAL AGREEMENT

A Tenant cannot withhold rent from the Landlord without sending notice and allowing the Landlord time to cure the non-compliance, violation, or default of its obligations. Failure to send the required notice to the Landlord has significant impact on a Tenant's rights under the rental agreement and Florida Statutes. If the non-compliance is not remedied within the time period specified by statute (or such longer time as may be granted in your written rental agreement) and the Landlord's failure to comply renders the dwelling unit untenable, rent may be reduced in proportion to the loss of rental value caused by the non-compliance. If the Landlord's violation of its obligation is not remedied, but the failure to cure the non-compliance does not render the dwelling unit untenable, the Tenant may remain in the dwelling unit and the rent shall be reduced, until the violation is cured, by an amount in proportion to the loss of rental value caused by the failure to cure the violation. In any legal proceeding, however, the Tenant will have to pay all past due rent, and rent as it comes due during the legal proceedings, into the registry of the Court. The Tenant should, therefore, deposit all rent as it comes due in a separate bank account until the Tenant's disputes with the Landlord have been resolved. For the text of Florida Statute 83.51 (1), and the grounds for withholding rent, see the not to Form 3.

FORM 76—MOTION FOR CLERK’S DEFAULT – RESIDENTIAL EVICTION

The Tenant will have five days, after service, to file a written response to a Complaint for eviction, and 20 days, after service, to file a written response to a complaint for back rent and damages. If the Tenant fails to file a written response in that time the Landlord is entitled to a judgment by default.

Obtaining the judgment is a two-step process. First, a Clerk’s default should be obtained by delivering to the Clerk of the Court an executed Motion for Clerk’s Default. Form 76 should be used to obtain a Clerk’s Default when the tenant has failed to respond to an eviction complaint and Form 77 should be used to obtain a Clerk’s default when the Tenant has failed to Respond to a complaint for back rent and damages. In order to be entitled to a default, Form 81, Nonmilitary Affidavit must be filed with the Clerk.

Second, based on the Clerk’s default, a default final judgment should be obtained from the judge handling the case. The default final judgment is obtained by delivering to the Court a Motion for Default Final Judgment-Residential Eviction (Form 78) and/or a Motion for Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction) (Form 79) with an Affidavit of Damages (Form 80). If the Landlord is seeking a Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction), a copy of the motion and affidavit must be served on the Defendant. The forms provide a certificate of service to be completed established property service of the motion and affidavit.

FORM 77—MOTION FOR DEFAULT FINAL JUDGMENT – DAMAGES
(RESIDENTIAL EVICTION)

The tenant will have five days, after service, to file a written response to a Complaint for eviction, and 20 days, after service, to file a written response to a complaint for back rent and damages. If the Tenant fails to file a written response in that time the Landlord is entitled to a judgment by default.

Obtaining the judgment is a two-step process. First a Clerk's default should be obtained by delivering to the Clerk of the Court, an executed Motion for Clerk's Default. Form 76 should be used to obtain a Clerk's default when the Tenant has failed to respond to an eviction complaint and Form 77 should be used to obtain a Clerk's default when the Tenant has failed to respond to a complaint for back rent and damages. In order to be entitled to a default, Form 81, Nonmilitary Affidavit, must be filed with the Clerk.

Second, based on the Clerk's default, a default final judgment should be obtained from the judge handling the case. The default final judgment is obtained by delivering to the Court a Motion for Default Final Judgment-Residential Eviction (Form 78) and/or Motion for Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction) (Form 79) with an Affidavit of Damages (Form 80). If the Landlord is seeking a Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction), a copy of the motion and affidavit must be served on the Defendant. ## FORM 9 – FINAL JUDGMENT – DAMAGES

If the Court grants the judgment, the Clerk's Office will prepare and forward to the judge for signature. After the Court enters this judgment, you should obtain a certified copy of the judgment from the Clerk of the Court and record the certified copy in the public records in any county in which the Tenant owns real property. The Clerk of the Small Claims Court can probably provide you with the information concerning the collection of the amounts owed you.

A judgment for money (if properly recorded) is a lien upon the real or personal property against whom the judgment is entered for a period of ten years. The lien may then be extended for an additional period of ten years by re-recording a certified copy of the judgment prior to the expiration of the lien, and by simultaneously recording an affidavit with the current address who has a lien as a result of the judgment. The lien may not be extended beyond twenty years from the date of entry of the judgment, or beyond the point the lien is satisfied, whichever occurs first.

FORM 12—NOTICE OF INTENTION TO IMPOSE CLAIM ON SECURITY DEPOSIT

A Landlord must return a Tenant's security deposit, together with interest if otherwise required, to the Tenant no more than 15 days after the Tenant leaves the leased property. The Landlord may claim all or a portion of the security deposit only after giving the Tenant written notice, by certified mail to the Tenant's last known mailing address, of the Landlord's intention to keep the deposit and the reason for keeping it. The Landlord's notice must be sent within 30 days of the date Tenant vacates the leased property. If the Landlord does not send the notice within the 30-day period, the Landlord cannot keep the security deposit. If the Tenant does not object to the notice within 15 days after receipt of the Landlord's notice of intention to impose a claim on the deposit, the Landlord may then keep the amount stated in the notice and must send the rest of the deposit to the Tenant within 30 days after the date of the notice.
